Introduction

Established in 1997 in India, GLOBOIL – the Premier International Conference & Exhibition on Vegetable Oil, Feed & Feed Ingredients, Oilseeds & Oleochemicals is in its 22nd year. Globoil India is now an established annual feature and is keenly looked forward to by the players in the vegetable oil trade and industry. A truly interactive forum, Globoil is enriched by international participation and provides an index of the rising importance of India in the Global Market Place.

A Neutral Forum

GLOBOIL : A NEUTRAL FORUM. Globoil India provides a meaningful interface amongst the various constituents of the Edible Oil Industry of the subcontinent, offers the best analyst and Change managers, Experts & Industry trendsetters on one interactive platform-a platform that has over the years played a definitive and vital role in coming to terms & planning for the future. In addition to focusing on the Demand – Supply & price trends for Oilseeds, Oils & Meals. Globoil India 2018 will feature analysis on a whole gamut of issues and subjects which are a part of the changing paradigm of the global vegetable oil & related agri – commodity industries.

Globoil India 2018

Given that domestic production is far short of consumption demand, India's edible oil imports are likely to rise to 15.90 million tonnes in the 12 months through October 2018, up from an estimated 15.14 million tonnes shipped this marketing year. That makes India the world's largest importer of cooking oils.

Are you on Board with what's happening on the 2018 – 19 Global Edible Oil Scenario?
